

INTERDISCIPLINARY ENGLISH AND CAREER EDUCATION LESSON

On October 11, English teacher Sigita Valuckienė and career counselor Kristina Kulikauskienė, conducted an integrated English and career education lesson for students of the third grade. The lesson was attended by a representative of the Fox.lt organization, who introduced the steps of study planning and selection, and opportunities for studying abroad. During the lesson students took part in the discussion, performed interactive tasks in groups, and with the help of the Skype program had an opportunity to communicate with students studying abroad.

